OUR HOSPICE HOUSES

Lisaard House is a 6-bed hospice residence in Cambridge that has supported our community for over 20 years.

Innisfree House is a 10-bed hospice residence in Kitchener that opened in 2015.

The care provided in each House is exceptional, and we strive to make both our Houses feel like home.

consider hospice?

WHEN SHOULD I CONSIDER HOSPICE?

Applications for hospice can be completed at any time if you've been diagnosed with a life-limiting illness. You can submit your application, and when the time comes, you can decide whether you feel hospice is the right choice for you.

WHEN SHOULD I GO TO HOSPICE?

Hospice is appropriate for those who are approaching end-of-life and have a prognosis of three months or less.

How do I apply?

OUR CARE TEAM

At Lisaard & Innisfree Hospice, we have a team of experienced Nurses, Personal Support Workers, Physicians, and other health practitioners. We offer social work, spiritual care, music therapy, and legacy art programs.

COSTS & APPLYING FOR HOSPICE CARE

There is no cost for staying in hospice. Applications for hospice care can be completed by your Care Coordinator, or any health practitioner.
